DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 1-11 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. 20030005918 issued to Jones. Jones discloses an electronically controlled (see elements 40, 52) paintball gun, comprising:

An inherently disclosed barrel;

An elongated tube surrounding port 21a;

A high pressure chamber 20 (first chamber);

A piston 18 for opening and closing chamber 20;

A piston control chamber 14 having 2 low pressure chambers (second and third) formed on each side of the piston 18;

An electronic actuator 52;

Piston seals (see Fig. 1-4);

A valve seat 20a; and

A pneumatic valve 30.

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art cited on form PTO-892 are cited as of interest to show similar paintball guns.
